Fashion Entrepreneur & Influencer Sacha Stewart Launches The Vault by Sacha

Lifelong Fashion Enthusiast Creates Online Boutique

ATLANTA, Georgia (October 15, 2020) — Sacha Stewart, Creative Fashionista launches online clothing boutique to share her deep-rooted passion for fashion with the world.

The Vault by Sacha offers a variety of limited edition, rare and eclectic pieces including swimwear, tops, bottoms, and accessories to turn heads and make a statement at your next event.

Stewart's passion for fashion started as a little girl when she spent hour long trips at the fabric shop with her fashion designer mom and manifested in high school as the President of the fashion club.

Sacha did not pursue fashion after high school but instead worked as a nurse before pivoting into full time entrepreneurship.

“Although I loved working in the medical field, fashion has always been a part of my life. It's fun and a creative outlet for me, so the scrubs came off and The Vault by Sacha was born,” said Swewart.

Today, this Style Pioneer inspires her more than 110,000 Instagram followers daily through her bold and trendy styles.
